2nd Feb 2018

Dear Parents,

On Wednesday 7th Feb Crocus Class will be walking to St Michaels & All Angels Church in Inkpen to have the opportunity to look at church symbols first hand and talk about what they represent. This links with our key question for RE this term which is 'Are symbols better than words at expressing religious beliefs?'

We will be leaving school at approximately 9.30 and returning to school before lunch.

Children will need to wear appropriate footwear for walking, along with coats, hats and gloves, and of course be wearing their school uniform. They will be able to take their morning snack with them (something that can fit in their coat pocket).

Year 1 will not be going to Forest School in the afternoon as they will be joining in with follow-up activities in class about their visit to the church.

Yours sincerely

Gaynor Mousley
