

It's only one week to go till our elephant sale!

Inkpen Infants' Elephant Sale
on Wednesday 4th December at 3pm in the school hall.

The children in Crocus Class are so excited about their sale and have been making posters. They also bravely led a whole school assembly to tell everyone what they have been doing.

The sale opens at 2pm for the junior children to make their purchases and then for adults from 3pm. The infant children will be involved in the setting up and selling on the day. If Crocus children are able to stay beyond 3.15 for a short time, that would be very helpful.

All the money raised will be put towards adopting a baby elephant at the Sheldrick Wildlife Trust in Kenya.

A few of the things for sale on the day...

Homemade
elephant
cookies

Homemade
chutney using pears from our school garden

*Handmade beads
painted in colours to represent the wildlife in Africa*

Guess the name of the elephant game

On the day of the sale, the children can bring some money into school to spend at the sale. Please ensure money is in a purse or named envelop. Prices will vary in multiples of 10p so coins would be very helpful. The handmade beads will be selling for £2 a string.

'Crocus grown-ups' who are free to come and help the children set up and with the sale, would be most welcome. Please speak to Mrs Mousley.

The infants look forward to seeing you on the 4th December!
