How is reading taught at Inkpen?

Come and find out more on

Wednesday 20th November

3.20pm in the school hall

We would love the children in Years 1 to 6 to come with you as there will be books to share in addition to short presentations of how reading is taught as the children progress through Inkpen School.

A creche will be available for the children in Silver Birch and pre-school children.

'The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more you learn, the more places you'll go.' - Dr Seuss

Reading skills continue to be taught throughout the school and we really appreciate the support you as parents and carers give to practice these reading skills with your children at home. Reading is such a valuable life-long skill that when nurtured can foster a thirst for knowledge as well as being enjoyable.

'Reading also feeds pupils' imagination and opens up a treasure-house of wonder and joy for curious young minds'

(national curriculum for key stage 1 and 2, 2013 p.14)

Evidence suggests that there is a positive relationship between reading frequency, reading enjoyment and attainment (Clark 2011; Clark and

Regularly reading stories or novels outside of school is associated with higher scores in reading assessments. (PIRLS, 2006; PISA, 2009).
